

Fax Order Form

Special Edition: Market Report on Biomethane

Please send your fax order back to dena, Fax No.: +49 (0)30 72 61 65 – 699.

Many thanks for your interest in dena's publications. With this form you can order the Market Report on Biomethane. Please consider the provisions on page 3.

For the first time available in English, the Market Report on Biomethane is a two-part report providing the key facts on the development of the market for the upgrade and feed-in of biogas into the German natural gas grid. It combines dena's in-depth market knowledge ("The German Market for Biomethane") with the expertise of the renowned Fraunhofer Institute for Environment, Safety and Energy Technology in a comparison of relevant biogas upgrading technologies ("Technologies and Costs of Conditioning Biogas and Feed-in into the Natural Gas Network").

Right of Refusal

Dena has the right to refuse the Purchaser's offer, e.g. in case of non-availability of the study. In this case, the Purchaser's payment will be refunded immediately.

Miscellaneous

Amendments and additions to this contract must be made in writing. No verbal agreements have been made subsidiary to this contract.

Should any provision of this contract be or become invalid the validity of the remaining provisions shall not be affected. The invalid provision shall be substituted by a legally valid provision which most closely approximates to the economic intent of the Contract parties. The same shall apply to any contractual loopholes.

Any legal disputes arising from this contract shall be referred to the regional court of Berlin.

This contract is governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany under exclusion of the UN Sales Convention.

Right of Revocation for consumers

Purchasers who are consumers are entitled by applicability of the regulations for distance contracts to a right of revoking the contract on condition of the following instructions:

Purchaser can revoke the order within a revocation period of one month without further specification of reasons in written form (e.g. letter or e-mail) or by returning the goods. The revocation period does not start before the delivery and the reception of this instruction. Punctual dispatch suffices to comply with the time limit. The revocation must be declared to:

Deutsche Energie-Agentur GmbH (dena)
 Chausseestraße 128a
 10115 Berlin
 Tel: 49 (0)30 72 61 65 – 00, Fax: +49 (0)30 72 61 65 – 699

In case of an effective revocation, any performance received by one party is to be returned to the respective other, as are benefits derived from such performance, e.g. interest. If Purchaser cannot return the goods received in whole or in part or if Purchaser can only return the received goods in a deteriorated state, Purchaser must pay compensation for value insofar. There is no duty to pay compensation for value, if the sole cause of deterioration of the good(s) received was the inspection of the respective good(s), as would have been possible in a retail shop. There is no duty to pay compensation for value in respect of deterioration in the good(s) as a result of their/ its designated use. The costs of return will be borne by dena.

Obligatory refunds of payments must be made within 30 days after sending the revocation or returning the goods.

This ends this statement of the rights of withdrawal.
