AGENDA

START-UPS SHAPING THE ENERGY TRANSITION SIDE EVENT IN ENGLISH

MODERATION: PIA DORFINGER, GERMAN ENERGY AGENCY (dena)

2 JUNE 2021 (TIME: CEST / TRT)

As two of the fastest growing energy markets, Germany and Turkey offer attractive business environments for energy-focused companies, investors and stakeholders. By supporting energy start-ups in their seed-phase and by helping to create innovation ecosystems, they can significantly accelerate their long-term sustainability efforts. Collaboration between corporates and start-ups can leverage real synergies and helps to push the energy transition forward. This panel hosts a discussion on best practices of such forms of collaboration and highlights joint successes of energy start-ups and corporates.
